

I heard about BPL and thought it was some kind of joke till I did some "web" research on the subject. This sounds like something, if we hams had done, ie. interfering with other services, we would have had our license suspended or revoked. This could be the end of a lot of communications services, not only Ham Radio.

PLEASE don't let this happen.

Henry Milner